COPPER CABLING SYSTEM

The NextLAN 10G<sup>c</sup> CAT 6A UTP system features exceptional electrical performance and superior flexibility for diverse 10G applications. 10G<sup>c</sup> is the first cabling system to guarantee permanent link electrical performance for distances as short as 10 feet – making it ideal for data centers. This short link guarantee has been accomplished without compromising any long-length performance. And in all cases, 10G<sup>c</sup> is guaranteed to meet alien crosstalk (AXT) specifications without field testing.
